Name: Courageous Persuaders Scholarship
Award: Multiple Awards from $500-$2,000	Deadline: February 9, 2018
Open to ALL High School Students High school students nationally can participate; emphasis is placed on concept and the message, not on production values. Students are encouraged to use whatever video equipment is available to them. Teachers and principals, school audio/video departments, parent and community leaders are urged to share their equipment and lend local support by promoting the program as a very unique scholarship competition that is fun to participate in and has a powerful impact on a serious problem.
Create a TV commercial targeted at middle school students to warn them about the dangers of underage drinking or texting while driving, students can enter separate videos in both categories. Win scholarship money and trophies, have fun, and gain valuable experience. The grand prize-winning commercial will be broadcast on TV and the team that created it will work with Pluto Post and the DADA Education Foundation to upgrade their spot for air.
Open to all high school students in grades 9-12 – not only those taking video production. Winners will be selected based on idea. And you all have great ideas.

Name: Kennewick Schools Foundation Scholarships

Award: Multiple awards

Deadline: Postmarked by April 2, 2018

The following scholarships are available to an eligible graduating senior from Kamiakin High School. These scholarships will be awarded without regard to race, sex, religion, or ethnic origin. Scholarships will be awarded based on financial need, extra-curricular activities, community service and GPA standing.

Tom Anderlik Memorial Scholarship Tom Anderlik graduated from Kamiakin in 1990. He was an average student with a career goal in law enforcement. On August 16, 1991, Tom stopped to help a motorist on a California freeway. He was struck and killed by an oncoming car. Tom will be remembered for his sense of humor and his exceptional concern for family, friends, and the community. This scholarship will be awarded to an applicant with similar qualities. The Foundation's scholarship program will provide a $750 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from Kamiakin High School with a GPA of 2.5 or higher.

Sally Jo Joseph Educational Scholarship Sally Jo Joseph taught English and Humanities in the Kennewick School system for 32 years, retiring from Kennewick High School. Sally Jo died from health complications in the summer of 2001. She stressed the values of reading, appreciation of the Humanities and emphasized lifelong learning. Developing leadership skills is important and she encouraged participation in school and community activities. The Foundation's scholarship program will provide one $10,000 (4 years @ $2,500) paid directly to the institute of higher learning within the state of Washington. Recipient must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School district with a GPA of 3.0 or higher and planning a career in teaching or the liberal arts.

Kennewick Highland Grange Science Scholarship The Foundation's scholarship program will provide a $1,000 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. The Kennewick Highland Grange provided this scholarship in 1988. Recipient must be a graduating senior from Kennewick School district and planning a career in a science related field. Mathematics and Engineering qualify.

Terry M. Tanneberg Memorial Scholarship Terry Tanneberg began her career as a teacher for the Kennewick School District in 1976. She taught at Hawthorne and Southgate Elementary Schools for fourteen years before being named Principal of Sunset View Elementary in 1990. She continued as a Principal with the Kennewick School District until 2003, when she was forced into retirement due to melanoma. She lost her battle with melanoma and passed away on August 26, 2003. Terry believed strongly that all children had the capacity to learn and strived to provide quality educational opportunities for all students. She believed that education was a lifelong opportunity and continually strived to make life better, for everyone she came into contact with, through the educational process. The Foundation's Scholarship program will provide a $750 scholarship paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School District and planning a career in education.

Faurot Family Endowment Scholarship Mr. and Mrs. Faurot retired to the Kennewick community in 1992. Mr. Faurot passed away in 1995. Mrs. Faurot passed away in 2004. They both demonstrated significant charitable commitment to the community. Mrs. Faurot came from a large family that did not have the resources to assist all of the children to further their education. Mrs. Faurot made a gift in 2002 to establish an endowment for students in the Kennewick School District. Through the endowment the Kennewick School Foundation will provide two $1,500 scholarships paid directly to the institute of higher learning the recipient elects to attend. Recipient must be a graduating senior from the Kennewick School District and have GPA of 2.5 or higher. The scholarship is to focus on students that have a strong financial need. Eligible schools for further education would include community colleges, vocational and tech schools as well as four-year universities.

Name: Get Frontier Scholarship
Award: $1,000	Deadline: May 30, 2018
OPENS January 1, 2018 Is access to the Internet a right? Over the last decade, a growing number of people, and some non-profit groups, have begun stating that every human has a right to access the Internet. They equate it to freedom of communication. On the other hand, there are many who hold that the word "right" must be reserved for fundamental necessities. This group contends that the Internet is a not a necessity to life. In 600 to 1,000 words, compare two credible sources: one that is in favor of the argument that access to the Internet is a right, and one that is against the argument. Conclude your essay with a personal position on the matter. Your conclusion should cite references that support your arguments and demonstrate your research on the topic.

Name: AED Superstore College Scholarship
Award: $1,000	Deadline: May 31, 2018 November 30, 2018
Sudden cardiac arrest (SCA) occurring out of hospital claims over 326,000 lives each year, but still, many people are unaware of the dangers of this condition. Here are six other facts about SCA and automated external defibrillators (AEDs) you might not be aware of: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. SCA can happen to anyone, at any time, regardless of age, race, or gender. 2. SCA affects roughly 16 people under the age of 18 every day. 3. Only 1 out of 10 people who have SCA outside of a hospital survive. 4. The survival rate for SCA victims decays by 10% for every minute without proper defibrillation; after 10 minutes, survival is negligible. 5. AEDs have voice prompts and will talk the rescuer through every step. 6. Under Good Samaritan Laws, voluntary rescuers are legally protected when aiding those in sudden cardiac arrest distress. Select one of these six facts you were previously unaware of (and maybe shocked you!) or you wished more people knew about (if you already knew about all of these facts) and submit either a short essay or video which answers the following prompt: For your chosen fact, address each of the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tell us which fact you're choosing, starting with "I didn't know that..." or "I wish more people knew..." • Recount your reaction to learning the fact • Give us an example of how you might spread awareness at your school or in your community (and please be more creative than making posters)
